

COVID-19 Assistance

How Can SDHRC Assist You Throughout COVID-19?

At San Diego Human Resources Consulting, Inc., we understand that COVID-19 has impacted businesses and how they are responding. Do any of these questions sound familiar?

- “How do I reduce costs without sacrificing the happiness and well-being of my employees?”
- “Do I have a clear return to work plan that aligns with State and County guidelines?”
- “I finally received my PPP loan; how do I ensure most, if not all the money I received is forgiven?”

If these or other questions resonate, SDHRC is here to help.
